

WORKING TOWARD A MORE JUST SOCIETY FOR ALL

THE REV. DR. MARCIA LEDFORD, ESQ.

INVOKING FAITH
INSPIRING MISSION
ENPOWERING THE VOICELESS

The Rev. Dr. Marcia Ledford is a civil rights attorney representing society's most marginalized. An Episcopal priest, she earned her Doctor of Ministry in political theology from Pacific School of Religion. Dr. Ledford founded Political Theology Matters, LLC, to help the faithful develop public theology mission for greater social justice.

Marcia teaches, speaks, and preaches about political theology in varied forums.

Topics for speeches, keynotes, teaching, and preaching:

- What is Political Theology?
- Progressive Christians as Political Theologians
- The First Amendment and the Separation of Church and State
- Slavery's Legacy of Lynching and Racism Today
- American Civil Religion
- Jesus, Son of Women Foreigners to Israel, and Refugee

www.politicaltheologymatters.com

marcia@politicaltheologymatters.com

Faith-Based Advocates
Facebook group

The Persistent Widow through Latina Eyes: Mission as Political Theology for Comprehensive Immigration Reform in the U.S.A.

Published in Berkeley Journal of Religion and Theology, Volume 5, Issue 2

Book forthcoming in 2021